

In every community there are families affected by having a parent in prison or in the criminal justice system.

If this is your family you can talk to a children's centre staff member about:

- cost and practical problems of visiting a loved one in prison
- family relationships and stress
- children's upset and behaviour
- isolation.

